COLORING PAGES

Be your "BEST" with Virtues!

When kids understand virtues they tap into character strengths that guide them when faced with decisions between right and wrong, good from bad, or when they find themselves experiencing personal challenges and difficulties.

Kids love Cartoons!

Be your "BEST" with Virtues! —ELMO

RESPONSIBILITY

Responsibility is a sign of growing up.

Being responsible means that you are willing to be accountable for your actions. When you are responsible, you keep your agreements. You give your best to any job. When you take responsibility others can trust you.

When you agree to do something, like homework, watching a younger child, or a job around the house, you take it as your responsibility.

You are practicing
when you...

- Take your agreements seriously
- Respond ably by doing things to the best of your ability
- Are willing to do your part
- Admit mistakes without making excuses
- Are willing to make amends
- Give your best to whatever you do

Affirmation:

I am responsible. I give my best to all that I do and keep my agreements. I learn from my mistakes. I am willing to make amends.
