COURTESY

You practice Courtesy by learning polite ways to speak and act.

Courtesy is to be polite and have good manners. It is a way of acting with people that makes them feel valued, cared for, and respected.

"Please," "Thank you," "Excuse me," and "You're welcome" are not just words. They are courteous expressions that let people know you appreciate them and care about their feelings.

Being courteous to your parents, teachers and elders is especially important. It shows them that you respect them.

You are practicing COURTESY when you...

- Treat others as if you value and respect them
- Think about how your actions affect others
- Remember to treat elders, parents, and teachers politely
- Eat, speak, and move graciously
- Make requests instead of demands
- Greet people with a smile

Affirmation:

I am courteous. I remember my manner and treat people with respect. I greet others politely. I show people that I care.
