Be your "BEST" with Virtues!

When kids understand virtues they tap into character strengths that guide them when faced with decisions between right and wrong, good from bad, or when they find themselves experiencing personal challenges and difficulties.

Kids love Cartoons!

HUMILITY

When you are humble, you don't consider yourself more important than other people.

Humility helps you to understand that life is for learning and to be aware that no matter how much you know, there is always more. It means that you don't expect to be perfect. When you make a mistake, you are willing to learn from it. When you need help, you are not too proud to ask for it.

Humility is doing your best without attracting too much attention to yourself. It is giving what you have to give, not to impress others, but just for the sake of giving.

You are practicing
when you...

- Consider the needs of others as important as your own
- Learn from your mistakes and keep changing for the better
- Ask for help when you need it
- Are doing your best just to do it, not to impress anyone
- Are grateful instead of boastful

Affirmation:

I am humble. I learn from my mistakes. I do not judge others or myself. I value my ability to keep growing and learning.
