Be your "BEST" with Virtues!

When kids understand virtues they tap into character strengths that guide them when faced with decisions between right and wrong, good from bad, or when they find themselves experiencing personal challenges and difficulties.

Kids love Cartoons!

Virtues empower kids to:

- Overcome adversity and achieve their goals
- Rise above negative influences
- Be kind, honest and trustworthy
- And much more!

Be your "BEST" with Virtues! — PRECIOUS

MERCY

Without mercy the world would be a very harsh and cruel place.

Mercy is a quality of the heart. Being merciful means to treat others with compassion and forgiveness.

Being merciful is being willing to start all over, to wipe the slate clean of all mistake or hurts and give people another chance.

Mercy means you feel for someone who is suffering and do something to help them. When you practice mercy, you are giving other the gift of your tenderness.

You are practicing
when you...

- Take excellent and gentle care of yourself
- Refuse to shame and blame yourself for doing something you regret
- Put yourself in other people's shoes
- Let your heart be touched by people who are troubled and do something to help
- Give yourself and others the chance to start over with a clean slate

Affirmation:

I practice mercy. I do what I can to be helpful. I am compassionate and forgiving. I give myself and others the chance to start over. I extend tenderness beyond what is just or deserved.
